

The Committee Room

The Inner Circle

Located within The Grand Stand, overlooking the racecourse, the Committee Room is one of Flemington's most revered and private spaces.

This is where the Committee of the Victoria Racing Club traditionally hosts its most distinguished guests. Decisions are made. History is honoured. Legacy is preserved.

Rich timber, heritage detailing and commanding views across the track create a setting of quiet authority and refinement.

For private dinners, the room becomes an exclusive salon – styled with polished restraint. A multi-course menu is presented with precision. Service is discreet, intuitive and seamless.

A racing historian, former committee member or guest personality can be woven into the evening, offering stories that deepen the sense of privilege and place.

PERFECT FOR: Chairman's dinners, confidential board gatherings, private negotiations, high-net-worth hosting

WHY IT'S EXCEPTIONAL: This is not simply a private dining room. It is an invitation into the inner circle of Flemington's legacy – a space rarely accessed and never forgotten.
